

Nine things to know about Title IX

- 1) Title IX prohibits discrimination in education programs that receive federal funding (nearly all colleges & universities).
- 2) Sexual harassment and assault are types of discrimination Title IX bans.
- 3) Title IX applies to ALL students, faculty, and staff.
- 4) Schools must have established procedures for handling complaints of gender discrimination & sexual assault.
- 5) Schools must take immediate action to ensure complainants continue their education free of ongoing harassment.
- 6) Schools must not retaliate against someone filing a complaint & must keep complainants safe from retaliation.
- 7) Schools can issue “no contact” directives to prevent accused abusers from interacting with victims.
- 8) Sexual harassment and assault create a hostile environment that interferes with students’ abilities to benefit from educational programs.
- 9) If your Title IX rights are violated, view college policies at www.nyack.edu/safetyandsecurity

WE CARE. WE ARE HERE FOR YOU.

Karen Davie
Director of Human Resources & Title IX Coordinator

Karen.Davie@nyack.edu

Amanda Aikens
Assistant Director of Athletics, Compliance Officer
Mandy.Aikens@nyack.edu

Dr. Jeffrey Dueck
Professor of Philosophy and Faculty Athletics Representative
Jeffrey.Dueck@nyack.edu

Shaun Jacobs-Patterson
Assistant Director of HEOP
Shaun.Jacobs-Patterson@nyack.edu

Wanda Velez
Vice President of Student Development and Dean of Students
Wanda.Velez@nyack.edu

Other Resources Include: Resident Directors, Area Coordinators, Athletic Director, Coach, Campus Safety, Director of Auxiliary Services, and/or Local Law Enforcement