ACADEMIC, COMMUNITY AND LIFESTYE EXPECTATIONS

Nyack College seeks to cultivate a positive, constructive approach to community living and behavior, and students are encouraged to develop standards of conduct by which they will be equipped to contribute responsibly to their work, community, and family.

Nyack College seeks students whose personal lives are characterized by honesty, integrity, and devotion to high academic, moral, and ethical standards. A classroom (on ground and online) demeanor which promotes professionalism, courtesy, and honesty is expected of all members of the Nyack College community. Plagiarism and offensive behaviors will not be tolerated.

Nyack College campuses are alcohol-free, tobacco-free, drug-free, and firearms are not permitted. A student's personal appearance will reflect neatness and good taste in appropriate dress. Students are expected to abide by all policies when on the campus.

Nyack College reserves the right to dismiss a student who, in its judgment, does not conform to stated regulations or to the expressed principles, policies, and expectations of the program.

I affirm that the information set forth in my application and any materials I provide pertaining to my admission and/or financial aid is true and complete. I have read and agree to the above expectations.
